

BRYAN CHAPELL AND KATHY CHAPELL have been married more than four decades and raised four children who have passed their love for the Lord Jesus to a growing number of their children. Bryan has served as a pastor, author, and leader of Christian organizations. Kathy is a classically trained musician, who has directed church choirs, been a godly mother to her children (and their friends), a tender grandmother to children's children, as well as a spiritual mother to countless seminary and church wives and moms.
