

CONTENTS

Introduction	v
The Westminster Confession
1. Holy Scripture Is the Written Word of God	1
2. God Reveals Himself as Holy Trinity	7
3. God Accomplishes His Sovereign Determinative Purpose	9
4. God Created the Cosmos out of Nothing	13
5. God's Oversight Directs History	15
6. Humanity's Sinful Alienation from God Deserves Just Punishment	19
7. God's Covenant with Humanity Provides Our Only Hope	21
8. Jesus Christ Mediates the Covenant of God	25
9. Human Choice Is Freed by God's Choice	29
10. God Effectively Calls Sinners to Reconciliation	31
11. The Death of Jesus Provides the Basis of Justification	33
12. God Adopts Us into His Family	35
13. The Holy Spirit Sanctifies Our Spirit	37
14. Saving Faith Is a Gift	39
15. Repentance Produces Spiritual Life	41
16. Faith Initiates a Good Style of Life	43
17. Faith Endures Until Death	47
18. We Are Confident in God's Grace and Salvation	49
19. God's Law Teaches the Good, the Just and the Holy	51
20. Christ Purchased Liberty and Freedom of Conscience	55
21. The Lord's Day Embodies Our Worship of God	59
22. Oaths and Vows Reflect the Seriousness of Our Commitments	63
23. Civil Government Establishes Just Law for All Citizens	67
24. Marriage and Divorce Must Follow the Revealed Will of God	71
25. The Elect Church of God Has Visible Characteristics	73
26. The Fellowship of the Saints Ministers to the Whole Person	75
27. Baptism and the Lord's Supper Celebrate Sacred Events	77
28. Baptism Marks Our Being Sealed by the Holy Spirit	79
29. The Lord's Supper Points to Jesus' Sacrifice of Himself for Our Sins	81
30. Discipline Must be Exercised in the Church	85
31. Church Assemblies and Councils Effect Accountability and Order	87
32. After Death Comes the Resurrection of the Dead	89
33. God Exercises Final Judgment on Humanity	91